

Three young men were all sitting around at a table, Peter, Oliver, and Michael, all 25 years of age. In the middle of the table there is a gun, a Russian Roulette. "I just finished the installment of the silencer says Michael." Oliver picks up the gun and says, "we just need one more item to complete this unique and beautiful gun". Peter takes out a large piece of paper with drawings on it. "Alright guys he says, "the diamond is in the heart of the store which means that there are at least 5 camera's surrounding it. The diamond is worth 3.3 million dollars. If this job is successful", before Peter could finish Michael interrupts him and says "don't say "if" even one second of doubt can ruin this mission for us, you must believe that we all are going to be successful". Peter continues to say "okay, when we get the diamond we'll divide it in 3 ways which means that we each get 1.1 million dollars". Michael and Oliver both a look at each other and they both say no shit Sherlock. Peter with an annoyed face yells, "this isn't a joke this is serious we have never done something this big before and just one mistake we are all going to be locked up for the rest of our lives. Now here's the plan". Michael stops Peter before he finishes and says, "we all have to make up a plan together don't give us a plan I mean I trust you guys in all but money does change people". "Are you serious" Peter says, Michael and Oliver look at each other and laugh. "Lighten up a little Oliver" says, "were just making up jokes this whole seriousness of yours will get us caught". "Alright alright says Michael, "look Peter we all know how serious this job is it's literally our lives on the line here. I don't know, maybe it's just nerves but we've never done something like this as we can all agree, so enough joking around and let's get the job done".

Peter, Michael, and Oliver are all parked behind the store, all wearing a mask. There is a moment of silence they all just look at each other, and 3,2,1 they get out of the van, all standing at different points. They studied the camera's. Michael goes to the back door and unlocks the door using a few tools, he doesn't open the door until his machine gets the password to the alarm. "Wow, it worked" laughed Michael.

Peter with a confused look on his face, "what do you mean it worked there was a chance for it not to have worked"? asked Peter. Michael signs, "you know you would make an excellent wife always fighting for no goddamn reason, it was a joke". "This isn't a time for jokes" says Peter. Michael gets up and says "I know, but when your partner who you're about to commit a crime with is shaking like they just saw a ghost, Peter looks at his hands and see's that they are shaking, I think anybody in my position would do something to calm them down but clearly that made everything worse". "Can you two leave the arguing for later, please", said Oliver. They go inside and the place is full of lasers and right in the middle of the room is the beautiful 3.3 million dollar diamond. Oliver is standing out side beside the car to keep an eye out in case anyone drives by. Michael looks at Peter and he can tell that he looks very anxious. "Take it easy" Michael says. Peter looks at Michael and says "I know, I got this. I'll get the diamond says Michael", Peter takes a small step and says "I'm coming too". Michael looks down and see's that Peter almost touched the red laser, and Michael says "do me a favor and step over the laser so we don't get arrested, you are way too anxious and nervous, I will grab the diamond and place it inside the box just don't move an inch"! Oliver gets into the van because it's cold outside and the next thing he hears is START THE CAR! Both Peter and Michael get into the van and they drive off. All three men are yelling in excitement.

20 years later.....

It was my 16th birthday, I was running to catch my special date with my boyfriend. He invited me out to a fancy restaurant. I see him standing outside and I say "I am so sorry I am late, blame it on the stupid traffic". Although he was holding a rose and box of chocolate his face didn't look so happy. He hands over the flowers and chocolate to me. So I asked him if everything is okay. "I can't do this anymore Roulette" he says. I stood there in shock, I ask why?" I just think I need some space", he says.

My eyes start to get watery but I try not to show him. It's my birthday, my birthday! you couldn't have done this yesterday or tomorrow? At this point I am furious I am so mad to the point where I just throw his gifts on the floor and I start to walk away with tears falling down my face. I get home and I see a van in my driveway. Which is weird because nobody visits my dad and I. Ever since my mother went to rehab we never had any one visit us. As I open my front door I see a man holding a gun to my father's face and I start to scream. This man then grabs me and now he has the gun pointed at me. My dad is there threatening this man. I have no idea what is going on and who this man is, I then hear police sirens. There are at least 6 police men who burst into my house. My father gets thrown down onto the floor and this man forces me out through the back, then smacks me with his gun, and blind folds me. I have no idea where he's taking me but I hear a different voice a second man. At this point I am starting to get a severe headache, I'm feeling dizzy the voices of these men are slowly fading away, my eyes are getting heavy and I blank out. I start to wake up, my headache is still so bad, I feel my face, my nose has dried blood as my eyes open wider I see that I am in this room, looks like a basement. I look down and I see my feet chained to a wall. I have no clue where or why I am here. I think about my dad, why were the police at my house? What did they want from my dad? Who are these men? I look around me, there's not a single object here. I then hear a voice "his" voice he slowly unlocks and opens the door, this time he has on a mask. Doesn't he know I already saw his face, or maybe it's the other voice that I heard. As he is approaching me I start to breathe heavy. He sits down on the ground and just stares at me." Please, please don't hurt me" I said. He starts laughing. "My, my you look so much like your father, I'm sure he wouldn't want anything bad to happen to you". "You got the wrong people" I yell. He starts to laugh again. "I ask him what's so funny". Roulette Carter the daughter of Michael and Amy Carter, isn't that correct".

Tears start to run down my face. The other guy enters the room he is also wearing a mask. He comes in with food and a drink and says to me "eat up". I stare at his so called food. They both leave the room.

I have no clue if I should eat this food, I am hungry but what if they poisoned it. I'd rather starve, I push the tray away from me and I start to cry even harder. "You're late", those are the first words out of Michael's mouth to his lawyer Janet. "It isn't my fault that you got caught Michael" she replies. Janet sits down across Michael and asked, "what have you gotten yourself into?" I just took what was mine before he could". Janet with a confused look in her face. "What are you talking about"? she asks. "There is a gun a Russian Roulette." Janet laughs a little and says, "I always wondered why you name your daughter Roulette, anyways, what does this Russian Roulette have anything to do with this situation?" "The gun is worth a lot", says Michael. Janet's face just drops and says a gun Michael "seriously, okay so this whole situation is about a gun." "Not just any gun replies Michael, this gun has a diamond, and a silencer which is worth... I don't want to talk about this here." "It's okay Michael I am your lawyer they can't do anything. No, no you never know with these dirty cops," said Michael. The door knocks and detective Morris enters the room, and says, "Michael Carter you are under arrest for the murders of Martin Watson, Andrew Thompson, and Philip Richards." Janet yells at the detective and says "under what's grounds, you are making a huge mistake here." "Let me ease your soul hun, says Morris, Michael here has been linked to 3 different murders. His DNA matched, and I will do every thing I can to make sure he doesn't see the day of light again. Now are you going to tell me where his daughter is? I believe her name is Roulette." "If you knew your stuff good you'd know that she's been kidnapped by the men that told you about Michael, smartass," said Janet as she exits the room.

I lay on the floor, thinking about what my father is doing and why he had been arrested. Was he guilty, I mean cops can't just go into someone's house like that they have to have some kind of warrant. I slowly close my eyes. I hear footsteps but my eyes are too tired to open. I hear someone coming into the room, I think to myself I should pretend to be sleeping maybe he'll leave me alone. Or, maybe I'll just wake up from this horrible dream. He picks me up so roughly, my whole body is aching and he says to me, "you didn't eat your food." I just stare at him hoping he'll look into my eyes and feel bad about what he's doing. He grabs my face and says, such a shame, a pretty girl like you could have had a bright future. Guy number two enters the room holding a camera. He gives me today's paper. And tells me to look into the camera and read his script. I'm sitting on the floor shaking, I refused to say anything. 2 minutes of silence and the first guy says, "READ!" I say "no" and next thing I know I get slapped across my face so hard. I try not to show any weakness. I read his stupid script. "My name is Roulette Carter, my father is Michael Carter. Michael, Daddy they are waiting for your call." "Now that wasn't so hard, was it?" The second guy says and they both leave the room. I have a panic attack, trying to get myself together. I need an escape plan. I have no idea where my dad is or what's happening. My pockets are empty. They took my wallet and phone I have nothing. I look around and I see a small window, I get up and look to see if some how I can manage to fit through it. I turn to the door, I need to know how outside looks. So the next time they open the door I'll have a good look on how the hallways look like. I lay on the floor, and close my eyes once again this time I hope I get to rest.

"Mans voice; cell number 53." Michael enters he's staring at the wall. He turns around and lays down on his bed, staring at the TV. Women in TV ; "Today's news; a young girl by the name of Roulette has been kidnapped, watch this video of her."

Michaels stands up and yells turn up the volume, he sees his daughter, the video that was recorded and screams "that's my daughter! that's my daughter! someone please help her. nooooooooo Rou! he cries out falling the floor. I thought you ran. "Michael is sitting at the visitors waiting area, shaking his legs waiting for Janet to come. Janet enters after a few minutes. "What took you so long he yells across the room." "Sorry, had to get some coffee, what's all the fuss about" she says as she sits down. "Haven't you been seeing the news," Michael says. "Michael what's going on?" "It's Roulette he has her he's torturing my baby girl." Janet puts the coffee to the side of the table and looks into Michael's eyes and says, "we will find her. Do you have any idea where she might be?" "Yeah, he says here is that address." Michael writes it down, please be careful." Janet takes the paper and pauses for a second then asks, "Michael, I've been here for you and your family for many many years, so don't lie to me when I ask you this question; where is the gun," Janet whispers. "It's hidden in a good place it can't be found." Says Michael, he then gets up and goes back to the guards. "Michael! Janet says, Michaels turns around and Janet says is it true," Michael looks down and walks away. Janet with such disappointment on her face, goes to see a police officer and tells that she has information about the whereabouts of Roulette Carter. "WAKE UP!" That was what I heard before waking up in shock. He handcuffs my hand and undoes the chain on my feet. I ask where are we going .He says, "don't speak unless you've been spoken too." Then he puts a tape on my mouth. We leave the room I look at everything very good just in case he brings me back down, I see that there is a side door I wonder where it leads too. I feel my body is so weak I wanted to escape right then and there but I know that if I tried I would fail. We walk up the stairs. Its some kind of house or warehouse. He blind folds me and throws me. They both get in the van and we drive off. I yell and I yell but it seems like these man can't hear me. I wonder where they are taking me .I am trying to focus on every detail, so when I do escape I know where to go and where to turn. Left turn, another left, then a right and another right, then down. Where the hell are we going. I start to scream again this time the van stops. He takes my blind fold off, he grabs me by the arm I look across the street I see the old ware house that I was in before, then after a few seconds I see a Swat team of police officers. I know my dad knew where I was. I yell at the top of my lungs. The guy covers my mouth and drops me to the ground I still continue to scream. I am screaming and being dragged I try to grab something, I'm throwing my hands all over the place until I grabbed something I put it inside my shirt "he" doesn't notice. I get thrown down the stairs, he locks the door as he leaves. I look at the item that I grabbed it's a lighter that looks like a gun. I'm very disappointed what can I possible do with this.

Police officers ALL CLEAR!

"I don't understand, says Michael. That's the house, I know for a fact that she was there. They must have moved her." Michael in order for me to help you says Janet, I need to know everything, every detail." Michael starts to look around the room. "I will but not here. Get me out of here and I'll explain everything to you." Janet looks down and says "I can't Michael. The evidence is too much your DNA was found and linked to all three murders. We can go to trial but the crown attorney he'll destroy you. Look, Michael I've never lost a case but if we lose this one you go to jail for life, let me try and make a deal with the DA office." Michael takes a deep breath in and out. "I think it's best to keep me in here because if I get out I'll have two more murders on my hand, Michael says. Just get me back my daughter." As Janet exits the room she hears someone laughing, she turns around and says. "Is there something funny to you?" "My name is Lawrence, Derek Lawrence. "Oh yes, you are the crown attorney for my clients case. What are you even doing here." "Well I was hoping I'd bump into you here," Derek says ."Well you've found me, now what do you want?" Derek smiles and goes closer to Janet, "what I want is to make a deal with you, please let's get some coffee". Janet looks down at her coffee cup and says, "as you can see I already have a cup of coffee." "Alright, lets get me a coffee and let's sit down and talk. Derek smiles and leads the way. A medium double-double please Derek orders his coffee. Thanks."

"Janet Janet Janet, now I hear that you've never lost a case and I know that you wouldn't want to jeopardize your reputation. Janet rolls her eyes and takes a sip of her coffee. Come on lets face it he killed 3 people do you really want someone like that walking the streets." "I know my client and he isn't capable of something like that. This case has been brought to you by a man who hates Michael, of course he'll make up some dumb story like that," explains Janet ."His fingerprints matched. Look. Derek hands over the file to Janet. Janet opens the folder and she sees pictures of the 3 people that were killed, evidence from forensics and ofcourse, The DNA results." She reads the paper, "hair, his hair was found in the crime scene." "A piece of hair was found she says, oh please he could have brushed his hair and that guy took his brush. "We also found a partial print, luckily he was in the data base from before when he was 19 he was got stealing a car, said Derek. I know that you are a smart person Janet, you and I both know that you have no chance winning this case. I don't have to say a word in trail and I'll still win but you, you have to do a lot of convincing. "Are we done here?" Janet asks. "I am making you a deal, let him pled guilty, and he'll have parole in 15 years. Janet gets up. This is a one time offer" says Derek."I have to speak with my client." Janet gets up and leaves. Janet in her office still looking at the folder that was given to her by Derek. Janet can't believe her eyes and what she is seeing. She picks up the phone and dials to get a hold of Michael. "Hi, Michael please cell 53. Hello, says Michael. There is a deal on the table, which way do you want to go ."Janet goes in to see Michael, Michael stares at Janet for a long time and says, "15 years and parole. Michael 15 years is nothing compared to all these people that you've murdered. 15 years, and you get to still spend time with Rou but If we go to trial we fight against a sentence for life ."Michael signs "Janet I've known you majority of my life, I trust you, you tell me what I should do. " As much as I would hate to see you in jail, for the first time in my life I don't think I can win this case for you. Nothing beats evidence. But I am the best lawyer in the country if you want me we'll take this case to trial. "Okay, says Michael, I will pled guilty."

This time they didn't tie my feet with a chain, I'm free but locked in this weird looking room. No window this time just this door that's in front of me. My hopes drop down I really would have liked to have a window I would fit through it and escape. I decide to yell and have them open the door I didn't get a good look on what was on the other side of this door. AHHHHHH I scream at the top of my lungs. They both come rushing down the stairs and they have tape they tape my mouth. One of the guys says, "f you scream one more time I will cut off your tongue." I look ahead of me and I see that they left the door open. There is no hallway just stairs that go directly upstairs. This place is impossible to escape. Both leave the room. If I yell he'll cut off my tongue, I need to escape right now. So I start to make a weird noise I look around and there is no bathroom. He takes off the tape and I say. "I need to pee." They both look at each other. One of the guys says "I'll take her." He takes me upstairs it's a living space there is furniture, I look out the window the cops are still at the other house. I am in the bathroom now, and there is a window I try to close the door and he says keep the door opened I'll turn around. Great now I can't escape, and I have to force myself to pee. "What if I need to pee again how do I call you, because according to your buddy if I scream he's going to cut off my tongue." I say. "I'll check on you every hour", he said. "I ask why are you doing this to me? " Your father owes us something that has a lot of value he took what's mine and I am taking what 's his. You ever wonder why he named you Roulette he said." "Yeah after the unique gun Russian roulette. " Do you know where the gun is" he asks. "Gun? what gun my dad doesn't have a gun. "HE takes me back downstairs and before they leave I say "I'm hungry, I didn't eat."" YOU ASKED FOR TOO MUCH CHILD!" the other guy yelled and throws me a chocolate bar. I eat the chocolate bar because I am very hungry and I also want energy so when I escape I don't get tired fast. So, the guy that took me upstairs said that he'll check on me every hour that's enough time to plan my escape route. I can ran using the front door and if he tries to stop me I can use the lighter to burn his face, I doubt he knows I have it or otherwise he would have taken it from me. I decide to take a nap, my last nap before running. I am tired of this, I want my gun back from Michael I've had it! Peter calm down we'll get it, we have his daughter. No he needs something more, Oliver get the camera. As I am sleeping I get waken up by the two men this time I am getting beaten up and one of them is just standing there and holding the camera. My face is bleeding this time I can't help it I start to cry. "Look into the camera Roulette and day hi to daddy. You see the Mike I have your precious little daughter, return to me what is mine or else I'll start to physical hurt her, she'll wish she was dead. You have 24 hours the clock is ticking. "At the very moment I knew my life was over, and I now know that my father did something that's why I have been kidnapped. What could he possibly have done to make them act this way, it must involve money a large amount of money. I am being beaten up and tortured I need to escape and I have to do it fast. Michael lays in bed having flashbacks on his life with Roulette and he thinking how she got involved in all of this.

Michael Carter hands behind your back, says the correctional officer. Michael gets up wondering what is going on. The officer takes him to the interrogation room.

"Hello Michael, my name is detective Alice, please have a seat."
Michael sets down and says, "what is going on?"

"Michael I am here to talk to you about your daughter Roulette." Michael at this point starts to panic is she okay, he asks. Detective Alice asks, "do you have any idea on where she can be right now?"

" Michael's voice starts to raise, "if I did I would tell you guys to bring her, what kind of question is that, what kind of father do you think I am."

Detective Alice laughs a little and replies with "if you were a good father she wouldn't even be caught in this situation. Let me show you something."

Detective Alice shows Michael the new footage that his daughter was in. Michael breaks down in tears and cries out "what have I done."

"Michael I am here to tell you that we will find her." Michael continues to cry in agony. "The voice in the video said something about returning what's mine, what is this guy talking about? Michael looks at the detective but is silent. Michael I need to know what this man wants so I can help you. You were arrested because you killed three people but it seems like this situation is much bigger than that. I mean they have your daughter. Did you kill someone important to him?" "NO," Michael says. Detective Alice reaches into her bag and opens her wallet to take out her business card, "here is my card when you are ready to talk let me know."

Janet sees Alice leave the room. "Who are you?" Janet asked.

"I am detective Alice and I'm looking into the case of Roulette Carter. Look I know your his lawyer but I need to find this girl so if there is anything that you can tell me now's the time."

"There is nothing to tell he doesn't know where she is and neither do, and maybe instead of wasting your time and asking questions to the wrong people why don't you get out and actually do your job right. Janet enters the interrogation room where Michael is sitting down in complete shock. Janet says "I'm am so sorry that you are going through something like this ." "I need to get out of here and find her. Can't you do something?" "Unless you know exactly where she is I don't think they'll let you out of here" said Janet. "But they want me yells Michael they want me I have what they want." "The gun right" asked Janet. "Yes" replied Michael. "So you are just going to hand the gun to them" asked Janet. "I am going to let them think that I'm going to give them the gun" says Michael with a smirk on his face. Janet looks very worried and said, "you don't learn do you, you're playing with fire here it's not just you on the line it's also your daughter now. I don't know these men but for what I have seen so far they seem capable of murder. Janet gets up and heads for the door and says, if anything happens to her I'll never forgive you," and Janet leaves the room fast.

Janet and Michael are speaking with judge Merin. "So these people that have your daughter seem to want something of theirs that you have. It has been brought to my attention that you want to get out and look for her?" asked Judge Merin. "That's correct" says, Michael. Judge Merin asked "and what do they want from you?" Janet looks at Michael and gives him a look to not say the truth. Michael replies with, "I don't know your honour that's why I want to meet up with them to find out." Judge Merin looks down and then up at Michael you can tell by her face that is does not look pleased. "The only reason why I am going to agree to release you temporary is because there is a 16 year old innocent girl's life here however, there are rules and conditions there will be 2 officers with you at all times, if you even think of trying to escape I will lock you up and you will never lay eyes on your daughter again, are we clear?" "Yes yes Michaels says excited thank you your honour." "Don't make me regret this decision said Jude Merin." You will be wearing a wire says" officer Malone." A wire laughs Michael, you can't be serious, the first think they'll do search me." "Judge Merin rules, said officer Malone. "We'll also be placing a tracker on you, you know just in case you decide to act dumb and run away." Both officers start to laugh. "Well at least put the wire more discrete." "Can we have the room please" Janet says. Both officers leave the room. Janet's has a worried look on her face. I just wanted to say be careful." "I will, I've never been so scared not because of them but my daughter Michael said. She's everything to me I don't know what I would do if anything happens to her." Janet cuts off Michael and tells him how Roulette is such a strong and brave girl, go get your daughter!" Lets go" officer Ross yells, Michael starts to leave and Janet follows . "And where do you think you're going miss" says officer Ross. "I'm his lawyer and I'm coming whether you like it or not," says Janet as she continues to follow Michael out of the room.

Both officers, Janet, and Michael are setting in the SUV, "don't forget we got surveillance on you, this is the phone you'll be using all calls are recorded, if you pull out the wire or confess anything to them you would be violating the agreement which will then cause my team to be forced to come and arrest you, do you understand?" says officer Ross. "Yes, now can I go and get my daughter please?" replies Michael. Michael looks back at Janet and smile before opening the car door. Michael gets into the other car and makes the phone call to the two men that have his daughter . "Hey we got a call" says Peter. Peter answers the phone but doesn't say a word." Hello? it's Michael ."Well well Michael I see you got let out of jail, Peter says." " I got released for lack of evidence, laughs Michael. Where is my daughter?" "Do you have what I want," asked Peter." Yes it's with me, just tell me where you are and I'll bring it in exchange for my daughter," said Michael. "I'll text you that address," Peter says .Michael gets into the car and Janet gets out as well Michael asks "what are you doing?" " Be careful" says Janet and hand him a pocket knife, she doesn't say what is it because of Michael's wire. Michael hugs Janet, Michael gets in the car and receives the address and proceeds to drive to the location. As he is driving he can see in the mirror that the car is following him.

The guy opens the door where I am laying there on the floor still in pain. "Guess who's coming, I look up , and he continues to say, your father is coming, so good news for you if he gives me what I want then you'll be free to go." I look back down at the floor. I am happy that my dad is coming but I need to know the truth and hopefully soon I'll find out. Am I really going to leave this place, I've never wanted to go home so badly, and I miss my dad but I'm also very upset at him for putting me in this situation I hope this is all just a misunderstanding and that my father isn't in trouble with the cops. Well, he must be innocent because he's not in jail anymore or at least I don't think so. He could be lying to me. I still need to escape somehow. I don't even know how long I've been here, feels like a lifetime.

I'm hungry I haven't eaten in days and I don't want to ask, the pain is unbearable for the first time in my life I think I am capable of actually killing them. I look around the room again hoping to find something to use but all I have is this lighter. I wait for my father to arrive I just want him to explain everything to me, I need to know that truth and what is going on. I hear a car pull up, then a car door slams I think its my dad so I yell "HELLO HELLO HELLO" can anyone hear me! Then a "SHUT UP" comes from upstairs so I stop just because I don't want him to beat me up again.

Peter opens the front door as he see's Michael pull up on his driveway. "Right across the street now why didn't I think of that" says Michael. Peter has a gun pointed in Michael's face and Michael tells Peter that he is unarmed and that he just wants his daughter. "You'll get her when I get the gun or my money." Let me see her so I know that she's okay." said Michael Peter turns to Oliver "I'll take him" he said. "No we'll both go" Peter said angrily . "She better be okay," I hear my dad's voice I get up I'm finally going to go home now. The door opens and my dad ran and hugged me and he whispers in my ear that I am going to be okay, which was great to hear I thought for a second that my life was over. A part of me still believes that this is too good to be true, I just want this to be over. "Do you have it" Oliver says. This other guy barely spoke and now he speaks. My dad says "yes I do, but its in my car." Peter shakes his head and says "go and get it." " I don't trust you with my daughter she's going to come upstairs with all of us."

Peter comes close to me and I flinch every since he hit me I have become even more terrified of him. He grabs me by the arm and I cringe a little my dad see's how much pain I am in and I see his fist roll up into a ball, I thought for a second that he was going to punch him. We all go upstairs. "Wait" Peter says and he starts to search my dad, but he finds nothing. I wish my dad had something to kill these awful men. We all go outside, I say "you're hurting my arm" to Peter my dad says "let her go she's still standing right beside you." He let's go of my arm. My dad opens the trunk of the car and tells both the men "if you want it then go and get it." Peter says, "Oliver go and check," then and pulls out the gun at my dad and I yell 'NO PLEASE NO. "It's okay baby it's okay" my dad says trying to calm me down although it's not working. Janet is in the car shaking, "shouldn't we go in." Not until I see what he wants" says the officer. Janet looks at Officer Ross and says, "he wants money that's why he took his daughter he owes him money from a long time ago so drive before I drive for you." The officer is stunned by what he just heard from Janet and says "feisty I like that, and drives. "ALL UNITS LETS GO" he says over the radio. "It's not here Oliver" says but before he can get out Michael stabs him 3 times. I see my dad doing that and I'm actually proud that he did next thing I know I get held my the neck with a gun pointed on the side of my face and I start to yell ."Shut up shut up before I shoot" said peter. Then the police arrives and this officer is yelling "let her go let her go." I see Janet my dad's long time friend and lawyer. I wondered what she was doing here, she see's me and I yell her name. There's about 10 cop cars all with guns then there this guy with one pointed at me. I try to escape but his arm is around my neck and if I try to move he squeezes me tighter. "Peter please stop" my dad says. Peter, I know that name my dad does know these men so I ask "what's going on dad how do you know these people?" "Oh you don't know, I think it's story time says Peter. Let's see your father here. "Stop I will kill you with my bare hands" my dad yells. "Peter continues to say, your daddy here has something of mine it's a gun a Russian roulette that's why he named you Roulette because he just loves the gun. But, this gun it worth a lot of money because there is a diamond attached to it and there's a silencer, it's worth 3.3 million dollars. So, as long as your father gives me that gun or the money than you'll be free to go. And he is also a murderer. "My dad ran to Peter and tackled him and he told me to run next thing I hear are gunshots so I went on the floor as I look back to see if my father is okay I see him running and Peter chasing him. All the cops run after them, so I start to run and yell leave him alone Janet catches me and tells me to stop. "They're going to kill him," I yell "They won't" says Janet. "Is it true I ask, everything that Peter said is it true?" Janet looks at me in a way where she tells me yes. "You're going to find out anyways, he's been linked to 3 murders I'll be defending him" she says. "I want to hear it from you. " He never told me with words but I know your father, she replies. I look back and wonder why Janet is so calm by father is being chased by the entire cops. "Why are you calm" I asked but before she can answer I see all the cops coming back no sign of my father or Peter. One of the officers approaches me and asked if I'm okay. "I say I'm happy to be alive."

" Listen, he says I know that that's your father but do you have any idea on where he went?" " I'm saved so why do you want my dad for? what did he do? "He takes a long pause before saying, 'nothing I just need to speak with him. "I need to sit down" I say. The officer opens his car door and lets me sit on the passenger side. I'm in the car thinking on who my dad is he's not the man I thought he was, all of this happened because of him. First it's about a stupid gun and now he's a murderer. Janet walks over to me, "I want nothing to do with him I say out loud. Janet just stands there. I continue to say, how could you even defend him for killing a person. I mean look at me look at my face all this happened because of him. She doesn't say anything. But you knew, this whole time you knew. " No she says, I didn't know about any of this until he called me. I'm his lawyer and it's my job to defend him. I'm here right now because I wanted to make sure that you are okay."" I'm fine" I say before getting up and walking away. Michael continues to run and hides between an alley full of cars. "WHERE ARE YOU?" says Peter. Peter fires his gun in all of the cars. Michael is hiding between cars and he has a clear view of Peter. Michael searches different vehicles to see which one is unlocked. After some time he finally finds one, opens the door and gets inside then he hotboxes that car and drives off very fast. Peter see's Michael and start to fire his gun again until he runs out of bullets. Peter looks for a car and hotboxes it to follow Michael. Both Michael and Peter are driving with excessive speed down the highway. Michael throws away the phone, wire and tracking device that he had out the window. "Shit officer Ross says. Now we can't track him." He stops the car. I'm standing there with the paramedic I see the guy that my father stabbed he breathing for his life he isn't dead. A few minutes later I see the cops that were chasing my father coming back and I'm thinking that my father is there with them. The officer comes out and shakes his head to this other guy who must be his boss or something. This older man than looks at me and starts walking in my direction. I look back to see if anyone is behind me but I'm the only one who is standing there. "Hello, my name is detective Ronald but you can call me Steve" he says. He's staring deep in my eyes I don't know why but he is, and it's kind of making me feel uncomfortable. I cross my arms. "I see a lot of hurt in you" he says. I look at Janet and I see that she's on the phone with someone. I look back at this Steve guy. He is still staring at me, so I stare back. "You might want to put some ice on your face to make sure the swelling stops," he said. He then yells while still staring at me get this young lady an ice pack. "You don't say much do you." I'm thinking to myself will this man ever stop talking. The paramedic hands me an ice pack. I place it on my face and close my eyes. It actually feels really good. "Thanks for the ice pack" I say. And then he starts to laugh "Ohhhh she talks. "I don't smile and says, They say if you smile it'll make you feel better, but I don't feel better. " I know he says, you've been through heck of a lot. But now you are free and you are safe. Your father has done some stuff and we just want to make sure that it doesn't happen again. So if you have any information that would really help us. " I don't know where he is I've been saying that all day no I've been saying that since that day I got kidnapped so please leave me alone now, and oh by the way if you send one more of your men to ask me that same god damn question I will disappear and if you think it was hard looking for my dad you have no idea how hard it'll be looking for me." Then I walked away.

Peter continues to chase Michael on the highway. Michael makes a sharp right turn and exits the highway he finds a ditch and crashes the car. He gets out and starts running. He looks back and see's that he lost Peter. He gets into this shed. Michael knows this place he has a box which contains a hat, cell phone, a gun and extra clothes. He changes into them. Michael then grabs a phone and dials Janet's number. " Hello" she answers. "Hey its Michael. " Michael where are you she said angrily. The whole country to looking for you. " I'm going to turn myself in I just need to make sure that Peter can't find me or he doesn't hurt my daughter. "Janet looks at Roulette, "she' fine, she's just upset at the moment but just come back". "She hates me, my own daughter hates me now she says. " At the moment she hates everybody but that's called being a teenager" says Janet. Shots get fired Michael hears it over the phone. Michael yells, "JANET, JANET, JANET," but she doesn't answer. All Michael hears it screaming and gunshots. He runs back to the car tries to move it but the car won't because its trapped in some mud. Michael than goes on the free way and waits for a car to come. He see's a car coming so he starts to wave but he can see that the car isn't going to stop so he decides to pull out his gun. The driver stops then car and is begging for his life. He pulls out the driver aggressively and gets in to drive back to the house where Janet and Roulette are. As Michael is there he see's Janet sitting on the floor with the paramedics and Officer Ross. Michael says, "don't shoot, "Officer Ross pulls out his gun and says "get on the floor!" Michael continues to say "don't shoot I didn't want to go but I had to I just want my daughter to be safe. " Officer says "yeah that's why you pulled out your wire and threw your phone away" as he arrested Michael ."He took her Michael Janet cries he took her again! "Michael's phone rings. "You had a phone?" officer Ross asks. "I just got it that's why I ran to get this phone, explained Michael. Please let me answer it. "Fine officer Ross says but I'll be recording it. "Michael picks up the phone and doesn't say anything. On the other line it's Peter and he says. Michael, "I am very disappointed in you, I really thought you were going to give me what I wanted. "I was but I didn't have it on me that's why I ran to get it" replies Michael. " I don't believe you, you stabbed Oliver" says Peter . "I had to make it look like that I wasn't on your side, I needed the cops to think that so I could run away, I'm arrested they never released me. I'm not going to let them think that I have something of yours," said Michael. "Well, how do I know that you aren't working with them now? "I ran away and you saw that. "I have your daughter Michael, so one more screw ups, or any sudden movement to make me think that you are on their side or are trying to mess with me. I'll kill her. "Don't you dare touch her Michael says angrily. " Then give me back what's mine and nobody gets hurt" Peter says. "Alright, I'll go and get it, but if there is a scratch on my daughter I'll kill you." Peter starts to laugh and says "meet me in our usual spot in 1 hour. " Michael looks around with a strange look on his face. He then looks to Officer Ross and says, "I don't have what he wants and my daughter is going to die in an hour. "Janet pulls Michael to the side. "Are you kidding me she says, your daughter's life is on the line and you care about keeping your precious gun? " No Janet I mean I have the gun it's just not on me right now and to get it it's going to take me more than an hour" Michaels said. "Then call him back and tell him that. " I have another gun that looks identical to the one that Peter wants. "OMG Janet screams that is all you care about, all you care about is keeping that gun and not saving your own daughter, your own innocent daughter." Janet cries.

"I just don't want him to have it I know the price I have to pay Janet I know that I'm not questioning her life but I need you to understand me . "As long as you can save her life that's all I care about I don't understand Michael, there is a chance to get her back, before Janet finishes she pauses and say, I have no idea why I am convincing you to save your own daughter. "Michael grabs Janet aggressively "don't you dare say that to me I love my daughter more than anything in this life, I'll get the gun, but if there is a chance that I can give him the fake gun and still get my daughter than I will. "Hey hey Officer Ross says. "He'll come after you plus is that a risk that you really want to take? replied Janet.

I just sat there staring at the wall, I had a gun pointed to my head and got kidnapped again, I now know who my father is, well I mean atleast I thought I knew who he was, and I want nothing to do with him. I actually hope that he doesn't find me I just want to escape on my own. He'll never see me again. I keep thinking of all those years that we spent together he was the perfect father, well you know what they say if something is too good to be true than it probably is. I hear footsteps I stand up and look at the door, he enters this Peter guy. He is chewing a piece of gym and wiggling his gun. I take a step back but this time I try not to cry, I slightly look at the door he left it open, I think to myself that this is it, it's now or never. He continues to walk towards me and he tells me that my dad is coming again, talk some sense into him he says or you're a dead girl. He takes a seat and starts to clean his gun. Then I ran out of the room so fast, I run up and out the door I go. I hear gunshots which made me run even faster. I'm running through tree's that's all I see tree's and bushes, more gunshots, I look back for a quick second and Peter is close to me he stops and takes a straight shot which ends up in my leg. Yes, I got shot, the pain is unbearable, I stumble on the ground I stream in pain but that still won't stop me from trying to run and suddenly I hear sirens. I can't take the pain anymore and my leg is giving up on me. I don't scream I look behind me while laying on the floor and I see an army of cops arrest Peter. I put my head down in relief. I close my eyes for a good minute before I hear an officer say we need an ambulance. I open my eyes and everything I see is extremely blurry, then I slowly fade away. I woke up at the hospital, I see Janet and no signs of my father. She gets up when she saw that I was awake now. "You were shot in the leg but you'll be okay," she says. I asked "where is my dad. "She looks down and says, "you're dad has done a lot of bad things but he's the one who gave the cops a call and told them where you were. " I guess what Peter said was true I say. " I'm so sorry you had to go through this Rou, I really am. "Hello, I am Dr. Lopez and I just wanted to say that you are a very strong young lady. " I smile, felt like I haven't smiled in awhile but this time It actually feels good. "You'll be discharged soon, you'll need crutches but it won't take you too long to recover. " Janet looks at me and says "let's go home.

" An older lady approaches us and she says that she is from child services. Janet steps in and says "I will be legally adopting her, we are actually on our way to the courthouse. " I know you've been through a lot Roulette, My name is Anna and I'm always here if you need any kind of support. "I look at Janet and say, "can we just go home please." Janet takes my hand and we get into her car and drove off. Michael and Peter are sitting in a cell together, "this isn't over" says Peter, Michael smiles and before the correctional officer takes Michael to another cell Michael says" nope, this is just the beginning."
